M.S.A.D. #44 Directors' meeting

The Board of Directors of SAD 44 met in regular session Monday evening of this week in the library at Telstar Regional High School.

A large delegation of parents, teachers and others interested in the implementation of a gifted and talented/enrichment program in the district's elementary program were present to lend their support to a recommendation of the board's Education Committee.

The directors authorized the superintendent to diligently pursue funding sources to enable the establishment of a "gifted and talented/enrichment" program in SAD 44. It was the consensus of the board members that such a program not be instituted until adequate sources of financial support were evident.

Features of the Education Committee report concerning gifted and talented/enrichment were: Hire a full-time teacher/coordinator to set up and operate the program in SAD 44 for the elementary schools. Offer general enrichment to all students. Develop and identify a process for the top 20 percent of the student population to participate in a gifted and talented program.

This should be done after a teacher/coordinator is hired. Develop a community resource bank in conjunction with the volunteer groups that now exist. Have in-service training for staff members. Have release time for teachers to work with the teacher/coordinator in planning and implementing the program.

Eleven Telstar juniors and seniors acquainted the directors with projects in which they participated during "Career Week" last month. Students reporting were: Sue Fraser, Scott Newton, Marsha Moxcey, Suzi Roy, Richard Saunders, Jacob Schachter, Jodey Kimball, Duayne Jodrey, Eric Wight, Brent Bachelder, and Rachel Belanger.

Boundary dispute results in lawsuit by Woodstock residents

Efforts by the Town of Woodstock to have the courts decide the boundaries of Lake Road have resulted in the filing of a countersuit by the two landowners abutting the road.

The selectmen were informed late last week that John W. and Sylvia Hauzenblas and Harold and Violet Clukey had filed suit against the town, seeking real and punitive damages of $113,500.

The amount sought is broken down as follows: $10,000 for illegal deprivation and trespass, $25,000 for actual damages to real and personal property, and $75,000 in punitive damages, plus interest and attorney fees.

The suit also demands, "That the plaintiff be enjoined from inflicting future negligent and/or intentional damages to the real and/or personal property of the defendants."

Greenwood prepares for special town meeting

Greenwood voters will be asked, at a special town meeting next Tuesday, to authorize a land swap that will provide space for a new stump dump.

"Hopefully this meeting will authorize and finalize the land exchange," Selectman Wayne Redman said at last night's (Tuesday's) Board of Selectmen meeting.

The land being considered for the stump dump is on Route 219 in Greenwood City and is currently owned by Penley and Mills.

Until the land exchange is completed and the new stump dump opened, residents should hold onto any stump dump material they have, Selectman Redman requested.

Especially, these materials should not be put into the dumpsters at the transfer station. Unacceptable materials at the transfer station include flammable liquids, non-combustible materials, and bulky objects, he noted. Most flammable liquids require special handling and disposal as hazardous waste. continued on Page Eight

Youth wrecks stolen cycle following high-speed chase

A 14-year-old Bethel boy was slightly injured Monday night when he lost control of the motorcycle he was riding and ran off Route 2 in West Bethel, ending a high-speed chase that began when he allegedly ran a stop sign at Church Street and Railroad Street in Bethel.

Police Officer Norman Clanton said he attempted to stop the youth when he noticed him run the stop sign at about 9:50 p.m., but the boy raced away on the motorcycle—a 1982 Kawasaki 400cc machine.

Police Officer Clanton gave chase and estimated the motorcycle was going 75 mph when the boy lost control. He was taken to Stephens Memorial Hospital where he was treated and released for minor injuries.

Officer Clanton said the motorcycle was taken by the youth from its owner in Bethel and was being used without permission.

He said charges would likely be filed shortly for speeding, unauthorized use of a vehicle, running a stop sign, and not having a license. "He's in a lot more trouble now than he would have been just for running the stop sign," said Officer Clanton. He added, "He's very lucky to be alive."

He estimated the motorcycle sustained $1,000-worth of damage. It is now at Caudreus' Repair.

Late sports results

Telstar's baseball and softball teams sent their Fryeburg Academy visitors home yesterday wishing they had never come to Bethel. Both Rebel squads scored impressive victories, although the boys' game was in doubt until the closing minutes.

The girls, who have a perfect season record of 6-0, turned back Fryeburg 12-3 on the stellar pitching of southpaw Tanya Foster and good defense by the entire team.

The Rebel boys, after leading through most of the game, saw their lead vanish in the top of the seventh when a spirited two-out rally put the visitors ahead by one, 9-8.

But the Rebels came through in their final at-bat, loading the bases and then pushing over the tying run and the winning run. Ken Whitney was the winning pitcher, though he was relieved by Ken Viger after the visitors went ahead. The boys are now 5-1 in the regular season—having lost only their opener to St. Dom's—and seem a shoo-in for the playoffs.

Motel moves to new site in West Bethel

Motorists on Route 2 this past week might have been a little startled to see a motel on the move. The Redwood motor court—the former Redwood Motel—was uprooted from its former home and taken to a new home in West Bethel.

The motel was purchased by Edward and Joyce Bassett, owners of Pleasant River Campground, and is now set up in the field on the east side of the campground property.

Moving of the motel was handily accomplished by Joe Beote, of Gray, by splitting up the building into four parts, raising them onto sets of wheels and hauling them off by truck.

One section went each day, Wednesday and Thursday, May 8 and 9, with completion this Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Bassett said it will take time and a lot of work before everything is connected, but they hope to have the units ready for travellers early in June.

This brings to 14 the number of motel units available at the campground, along with 30 campsites and several additional tenting areas. The Bassetts purchased the campground, the original four-unit motel, and the adjoining home in West Bethel in October of last year and are looking forward to their first busy summer season.

The Redwood Motel was constructed by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Glines and was operated for several years by the Glines family as the Red Rooster Motel and dining room. It was purchased eight years ago by Paul Carter and the name changed to Redwood Motel.

This is the second big move for buildings from this property, as the Glines home, which stood adjacent to the motel, was moved to Swan's Corner in the summer of 1983 and is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wilson and family.

Added ambulance garage funding to be topic of special meeting Thursday

Interested Bethel voters will gather at the Telstar auditorium Thursday evening, May 16, at seven o'clock to decide whether or not they desire to authorize an additional $14,535 for the construction of an ambulance garage. At a special meeting in March local voters authorized the borrowing of up to $72,241 for the project.

Citizen circulation up 5% in past year

Paid circulation of The Bethel Citizen climbed from 2,150 to 2,266 during the past year, according to the latest review and verification conducted by the Bethel Post Office. The 116 increase in paid circulation is a jump of 5 percent over the past 12 months.

The post office audit, completed last week, shows that the total circulation is about evenly divided between subscriptions and single-copy sales.

The Citizen's circulation area is mainly the towns of the SAD #44 school district, plus West Paris. The paper also has more than 600 subscribers out-of-county, many of whom are in neighboring states.

Decision time Thursday night

Thursday night is decision time for Bethel. At a special town meeting to be held in the Telstar auditorium at 7 p.m., voters will decide whether to allow the selectmen to use $72,000 previously appropriated for a complete ambulance garage in any way they see fit, or force the selectmen—and the contractor—to produce the completed job first envisioned.

The question on the ballot this Thursday will be whether to appropriate an extra $15,000 to pay for a complete job. If voters turn down the proposal, there's no telling how much of the job will get done, or how much money will be needed in the future to pay to complete the work.

It's hard to be called upon to pay for other's mistakes, but that is what is needed. So let's do it and count it as a lesson learned at great expense.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I am writing to you as a concerned parent that feels that we have a definite problem. I feel that we all need to take a good look at what is going on in our town.

One incident that happened was when a Bethel Police Officer took TWO six packs of beer away from a minor and told the minor that if he came back with someone of legal age he could have the beer back. The minor came back and the beer was returned.

Another report is that a "Teen" was stopped by an officer and was found to be drinking and simply told to go home. Which the boy did not do and proceeded to tell his friends that the officer gave him a break.

This might seem like a nice thing to do and he's a "Good Guy," but what if that kid gets into an accident on the way home? What about the kid that gets stopped another time and is not given a break, is he going to have a healthy respect for the law or the officer? This is the mixed message that our teens are getting. Officers I don't think you have the right to allow this kind of double standard.

Then there is the matter of trying to find out who is buying the beer for Teens, let me just ask you what is the lesser offense buying or allowing Teens to have beer?

With the many reports about drinking and driving and the number of incidents where Teens are hurt or killed we must check our priorities. We just can't sit here and allow something to happen and later say I wished—(THAT'S US PARENTS.)

It is a very real problem and there are no easy answers but I feel that there are some things that we can and must do. I know that there is a small group of boys that have stopped drinking. To you boys, "Keep up the Good Work" and my prayers are with you. To you that haven't tried to stop yet I would hope that you find the courage to quit real soon.

Thank you for your time.

To the Editor:

As two people involved in the tourist industry of the greater Bethel area, we wish to commend you on the Citizen's summer special section. The publication is something that the community has needed for a long time and serves the area well.

With the investment at our ski areas this summer totalling over six million dollars, we do feel that it would have been more appropriate that an alpine area photo have been used on the cover rather than a Nordic photo. It is a necessity that alpine skiers return to Bethel in the winter or our investments are for naught. We would hope that you would consider promoting Bethel's [area] major winter industry more strongly in the future.

Yours truly,

Telstar Guidance

With graduation fast approaching college-bound Telstar seniors are completing their final course work, preparing for finals, meeting deadlines and beginning to feel anxieties over their future plans. To help alleviate some of this stress, Mr. Hart with assistance from Wendy Ault, UMF Admissions, presented a College Survival Workshop on May 10. Forty seniors were provided with tips on "dooms life—living with others," study habits, time management, getting involved with campus activities, and suggestions concerning college term papers.

Nineteen juniors and seniors were cited for having "Best Career Week" projects this month. Commended students were: Jay Hastings (Control Tower, Portland Jetport); Emily Gammon (Union Mutual, Portland); Sue Fraser (State Rep. Mills—State House, Augusta); Allyson Belanger (Surgical Wing, Stephens Memorial Hospital); Scott Newton, (Canadian National—Grand Trunk); Marsha Moxcey (Maine State Museum); Kandi Roberts (O.H. Dental Associates); Lorraine Herrick and Suzi Roy (Ethel Bisbee Elementary School); Richard Saunders (J&F Mobile Home Service, Bloomingburg, N.Y.); Jake Schachter (Andover Elementary School); Keith Wight and Mike McGuire (Dry Mills Hatchery, Gray); Jodey Kimball (Oxford County Sheriff's Dept.); Dana Dyke (Crescent Park Elementary School); Duayne Jodrey (Mexico Fire Department); Eric Wight (Sheerwater Design, New Gloucester); Brent Bachelder (Portland School of Art); Rachel Belanger (Respiratory Therapy, Stephens Memorial Hospital). Several of these students shared their Career Week experiences with members of the School Board at their Monday night meeting. It's projects such as these that make the program worthwhile and a joy to continue.

Editorial Comment

A continuing saga ... the final chapter(?)

On Thursday evening of this week Bethel voters will once again have the opportunity to be participants in one of the longest running "soap operas" of local politics—construction of an ambulance garage, the plans for and the funding thereof.

An atmosphere of acrimony of who is to blame for the evident discrepancy between cost estimates and bid prices, between a spartan design and what some think would be a grandiose structure with all the redeeming factors of a perpetual white elephant, if ever conducive to an eventual solution has long since out-lived its usefulness.

The opinion has been advanced that the school district would have "put the ambulance out in the cold." That might well be true over the short haul but hoping for that type of solution would to our mind only be putting off the inevitable. The inevitable being, that if we want and need an ambulance service, and we do, adequate housing must be available for it.

The time for continued bickering is past. In the 10 years that the ambulances in Bethel have been publicly owned a series of stop-gap facilities for housing the units have been utilized. The time is at hand for the town to house its own medical emergency vehicles without a dependency on other municipal departments, or outside political entities.

As unusual as the practice is currently, we think the voters will just have to trust local officials to utilize $86,776, the total to be available for the ambulance garage project if additional funding is approved Thursday night, not to build the proverbial "white elephant" surrounded by a sea of mud at the Cross Street location.

While it may be against our "gut feeling," to favor added funding for the project, we feel that the town is in a crisis situation in this area. If the town is not in crisis it is at least "between a rock and a hard place," a situation that seems to be a way of "life in the financial annals of most small towns."

Will Thursday's meeting provide the final chapter of this continuing saga, or will there be further chapters and episodes, ad infinitum, ad nauseum? jkb

Notes from the Chamber of Commerce

The Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday at the King's Inn in Mason. Final details the chamber's annual meeting and dinner were discussed.

The annual dinner is set for Wednesday evening, June 5, at South Ridge Lodge, Sunday River Ski Area. Country singer Ted White will be the featured entertainment this year. Tickets will be $10 for chamber members and $12 for non-members and include an all-you-can-eat buffet meal at 7 p.m. followed by the featured entertainment. Tickets are available at the chamber office, at Casco Bank, and through chamber directors. Due to space limitations, ticket sales will be limited to 180.

Nominations were placed for 1985-86 chamber directors. A follow-up discussion was made about the NTL/Chamber Seminar planned for October.

As the summer tourist season is fast approaching, Bill Riley, will attend to the needs of the Gem Shop's information board which is sadly in need of repairs.

The May 21 meeting will be held at the home of Rick Whitney.

THE MOUSE
by Kendra L. Hutchinson
Grade 2, Ethel Bisbee School

Once upon a time, there was a mouse. One day he was walking, when a bees' hive plopped on his head. He said, "Bees, you'll have to go away." The bees said, "No, we like your nose, we like your eyes, and your ears."

"All right," he said. He walked and walked and he came to some mud. He said "Bees, I have a home, too, and here it is. Here is my front door."

And he stepped in mud up to his knees. "Here is my living room." And he stepped in the mud up to his waist. "Here is my bedroom."

He stepped in the mud up to his chin. The mouse said, "Now I'm going to sleep."

He ducked and the bees flew away. And the mouse went home to take a bath.

Greenwood City By COLISTA MORGAN

Last night the moon hung, a giant round copper, close to the water, as I looked from my bedroom window sometime in the night. It was a bit of a surprise for I had expected clouds and rain.

The early morning threat of rain had passed. It was cold for May with a steady wind.

Our first show of wild flowers has begun, and the familiar carpet of blues or "Quaker Ladies" are in bloom. No one who has been in New England during the month of May can forget the loveliness of the blues. The wake robins or trilliums, brilliant young friends, are confident of spring. They almost flaunt their lurid petals in your face as if to force upon you the welcome news that the time of birds and flowers is at hand. Although it is pretty and noticeable, its odor is most unpleasant. This and the delicate bloodroot bloom out back of my house.

Along the pond, the red-winged black birds tune-up, "oc-ca-lee" comes from the bushes and cat-tails.

Swallows dash and skim the water, while from the tree tops sing the finches. Everywhere in the valley there is music. Spring is worth waiting for and dream about for half a year.

As I looked down from the ledges the stretch of water was transformed into a brilliant crystalline boulevard stretching eye distance. The breathing of the cool mountain air, made my feet winged.

I moved beyond the ledge toward the forest where a pine had fallen and shattered itself. Here I sat on a little shelf under another pine sheltered from the wind and watched the light change the water to coppery gold. Ducks swam in the circle of light, a scene touched with magic.

With another look at the weaving of the shadows and the distant hills, I then moved toward the brook. I saw the sweet white violets lifting their heads, and ferns uncurling in the dampness.

I stole out from the woodland crossing springy sun dappled brown duff under big trees, where an artist-fungus, clung to a gone-by tree stump. It looked fantastic, as it lifted its umbrella spread, as large as a dinner plate.

I pushed aside a few bare brittle limbs of spindly dead trees that had lost the battle for light. I crossed to the pasture and followed the wall back toward home.

The whispering breeze became a wide-spread wind; blowing against me it made me feel that I might have wings. It was strong and cold.

The shadows deepened, and uniformly spread like a plague. It reminded me of Robert Frost's Two Tramps in Mud Time. It was a day that can come only in our northern climate. We know the sort of moment which gives a promise of warmth, a raised hope, then a cruel rebuff. But there will be a day of days when spring holds up her face to be kissed.

Our rose-breasted grosbeak arrived May 6, five days earlier than last year. We, or the Halls, have visited Bernard Morgan at Stephens Memorial Hospital each day. Surgery is planned May 8.

Last Friday Doris Hayes had for dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes and two priests of Gray, Kerry Hayes, Nancy and Avis Hayes.

On Tuesday, May 7, Doris Hayes, Katie Tamminen and Colista Morgan visited Edla Tamlander at Ledgeview on her 90th birthday. Fay Holt and Anna Jarvenpaa, who usually go each year, were both ill so couldn't join us.

Michelle Prince

Michelle Prince named Gould valedictorian

Michelle Prince, daughter of Kathryn L. Huntley, East Boothbay, and Allen H. Prince, Golden, Colo., has been named Gould Academy's valedictorian of the senior class of 1985.

Michelle has spent two years at Gould, during which time she participated in The Outing Club, played soccer and softball, and skied in Gould's alpine and nordic programs.

In addition to being an honor roll student, she is a proctor in her dormitory and is on the staff of the yearbook and literary magazine. Michelle won the undergraduate advanced mathematics award last year.

She plans to attend Bowdoin College, where she was accepted under her early-decision program, and where she will study biology.

Gould Academy's commencement exercises will be June 1.

Gould seniors conducting pre-graduation projects

Approximately one-half of Gould Academy's seniors have elected to finish their spring semester classes early, take early exams, and participate in the school's Senior May Project program.

This program began over 10 years ago. It allows each student to pursue a topic of interest for a period of three weeks. This gives the student the opportunity to devote all of his or her energies to a topic not covered in the regular curriculum.

Ten students will spend their three weeks off campus prior to graduation, working in a variety of settings, including a Buddhist monastery in Montreal, as a Maine State Senate aide, scuba diving, producing video and audio-visuals for education, interning in a U.S. senator's office, working in a business and in a photography studio.

Each student has an on-campus faculty advisor as well as an off-campus project advisor. At the end of the three-week period, these students will return and present to the entire school a program or display explaining their project.

Twenty students will remain on campus, engaged in projects that include natural history study; veterinary science with a local vet; pottery in the school's pottery studio; stained glass construction; logging with a local woodsman; photography; field biology; elementary education in the local school system; working on the 1985 yearbook; silversmithing in the jewelry studio; cross-country trail and ski jump renovations; and an internship in the admissions office.

These seniors will also be presenting their projects to the rest of the school, either as a display of art work and/or photography, or in seminar discussion on May 30.

The Senior May Project program is coordinated by Mac Davis, teacher of English, and is overseen by a committee of faculty and students. Each student qualifying for project approval must meet a series of deadlines for topic, sponsor, logistics and description. They must also be passing all their courses on the date the projects start—this year May 10. The program serves as a break from the normal school routine for seniors who have already been accepted into college for the fall term.

Gould will hold its 149th Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises on Saturday, June 1, with Dr. Robert Strider, former president of Colby College, giving the commencement address.

Janet Sanborn

Gould student receives scholarship to UM Orono

Janet Sanborn, of Gould Academy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sanborn, Gorham, N.H., has been awarded a scholarship to attend the University of Maine at Orono.

Her scholarship is from the University of Maine's Pulp and Paper Foundation. The award, which will cover approximately two-thirds of tuition, is based on intellectual ability (top 10 percent of the class) as well as demonstrated interest in considering a paper industry-related career. These scholarships are intended to help students acquire an education that will qualify them for employment by paper producers and industry suppliers. They are made possible through more than 75 endowed funds.

The Pulp and Paper Foundation, formed by a group of executives in the pulp and paper industry to ensure a continued supply of trained technicians in the field, is presently sponsored by more than 150 paper, industry and related companies located in 26 states and Canada.

Janet has been a day student at Gould the past two years, commuting from Gorham. During this time she has been active on the varsity field hockey and ski teams, been a member of Blue Key (Gould's student service organization), the drama program and National Honor Society. During the winter term this year, Janet spent several months in Spain as a participant in Gould's foreign exchange program, which brings students from Spain, Germany, and France to Gould and allows Gould students to travel to those countries.

At the University of Maine, Janet plans to study chemical engineering.

ELEANOR GORDON GUILD

The Eleanor Gordon Guild held their annual Mother-Daughter Banquet Thursday night, May 2, at the Country Way in South Paris. The 24 members and guests present enjoyed a seafood buffet. Sally Downing gave devotions. Guests were presented with a corsage and a gift from a Maybasket. Present were Audrey Taylor, Cindy Blake, Alberta Angevine, Wilma Gorman, Beatrice Grover, Barbara Mahler, Muriel Faudi, Betty Perkins, Muriel Butters, Sally Downing, Joan Andre, Frances Saunders, Eleanor Parsons, Doris Fraser, Edna York, Edleen Winslow, Sue Fraser, Jeannette St. Pierre, Betty Blake, Debbie Lane, Newry, Chloe Cummings, Norway; Marie and Ruby Thompson, Jay. The next Guild meeting is in September.

BATTLING FOR THE LEAD: Gould Academy's Tedd Brown and Scott Merrill battled for the lead in last Sunday's bike race versus Fryeburg Academy, in Bethel. Both Brown and Merrill had mechanical problems later in the 22.5-mile race, allowing teammate Erich Schneider to win the race.

Gould sports summary

This is the way Gould Academy sports teams fared during the past week.

Last Wednesday, the women's lacrosse squad lost to Hebron, 15-11. Candi Guay led Gould scorers with five goals. Anne Courchesne, Jenn Griffin and Erika Tobin had two each. Goal keeper Marybeth Isham had 10 saves.

Women's varsity tennis, playing without their top player, lost to North Yarmouth Academy, 5-0.

Men's varsity lacrosse, playing at Hebron, lost, 9-5. That was an improvement over their last meeting, when they had lost 12-4.

Women's varsity softball, playing host to Buckfield, were very hospitable hosts and Buckfield went home with the win, 15-5. Gould batters, led by Rainy Ortea, Kara O'Donnell, Paige Sowerby and Alice Lewis—each of whom had two hits—collected 11 hits on the day.

In JV tennis, Gould lost, 12-0, at Hebron.

Men's JV lacrosse lost, 5-3, at Hebron. On Saturday, playing before the scores of parents attending Parents' Weekend, the JV lacrosse squad downed Kents Hill, 4-1, while varsity lacrosse lost to the visitors, 7-5.

The softball squad battered Kents Hill with 21 hits, coming out on top of the 22-16 final score. Erin Barette was one of the big bats for Gould, with four hits, including a homer. Pitcher Bronwyn Matthews held her own cause with two hits, including a round-tripper. Michelle Prince banged out five hits, while Tammy Childs chipped in three.

JV softballers lost to Telstar's JV's, 33-3.

The women's varsity lacrosse squad fell to Berwick Academy, 15-14, in the closing moments of the game. The score was tied at 14-all with 30 seconds remaining when Berwick scored the clincher. Jenn Griffin had six goals for the Huskies, while Candi Guay had four.

In women's varsity tennis, the Gould girls lost, 4-1, to Kents Hill. Quincy Oster won at 1st singles, 6-1, 6-1, and is undefeated this year. Molly Legg won at 2nd singles, 6-2, 6-2. Heidi Kim and Molly Lauck won at 1st doubles, 6-3, 6-3, and Julie Davison and Missi Ames won at 2nd doubles, 6-0, 6-0.

On Sunday it was cycling, with Gould's bikers taking on Fryeburg. The 0.9 mile loop—up Elm Street to Main, down Church Street to Railroad Street—was raced 25 laps. On the last turn, by Edelweiss, the lead group of eight racers ran into trouble when a tire came off Scott Merrill's bike and he crashed into a Fryeburg racer. Tedd Brown, of Gould, had to jump the curb, which blew his back tire. This allowed Gould's Erich Schneider to move into the lead for the win, with Andy Sahud 2nd and Bill McCarthy 3rd. Leah Garnett, of Gould, finished 2nd in the women's division.

This Monday, the men's JV lacrosse squad beat Brunswick, 5-2, while the varsity lacrosse team topped Brunswick 16-5. Sam Zwecker and John Mendola paced the Gould attack with five goals each.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

The Bethel Rotary Club held its weekly luncheon meeting at the Sudbury Inn at 12 noon Tuesday. Rollie Glines, sergeant-at-arms, introduced the visiting Rotarian, Mr. J. Geronda, of Rumford.

The St. Jude Hospital Cancer crusade road race, to be held this Saturday in Bethel, will start at 9 a.m. in front of the town office. Race chairman Dave Preble has worked hard to make the race a success. A large turnout is expected for this worthy cause. Food and refreshments will be served to the participants. The rain date is Sunday.

Romeo Baker's subject for Rotary information was the Four Way Test. The origin of the test was explained, followed by a club test of the four parts of the Four Way Test.

The program chairman for this meeting was Ted Chadbourne, whose guest speaker was Roland Desjardins, of WCBB, TV Channel 10.

The construction of the proposed translating antenna in Bethel and the degree of area financial support was discussed. Mr. Desjardins expressed his thanks to Cathy Newell, chairwoman of the fundraising group, who did such a good job in soliciting funds for the program.

A history of the use of translators revealed a number of interesting facts. Many remote areas now receive good TV reception through the use of these systems. It is anticipated that the Bethel translator will be in place and operating in late August 1985.

Mr. Desjardins pointed out that after the antenna is operational, WCBB will be received locally on Channel 4, rather than on Channel 3, as previously announced. This will eliminate any possibility of interference from the Vermont station that is currently on Channel 3.

DAV INSTALLATION IN RUMFORD MAY 21

DAV Chapter 21 will hold installation on Tuesday, May 21, at the VFW Hall, Waldo Street, Rumford, preceded by a supper at 6 p.m. State DAV Commander, Byron Adams, will be the installing officer.

CARD OF THANKS

My thanks to everyone who came to the bake sale.

Northwest Bethel

By CLARICE GIBSON

I had Frank take me down to Benson's Friday on the way to his work. I stopped to visit Sylvia for awhile and she said that she would walk part way back. The breeze is so warm today it is beautiful walking. Sylvia had a lot of fern bleeding hearts already in bloom. After the rain of Sunday afternoon and all day Monday, everything is "popping out all over." The violets are now blossomed, wild oat, and wild strawberry. Wednesday was so different, the wind was raw and Coach Hannon said it spit snow on the field at Telstar. We have spotted a beaver in the river. The first one we have seen for years.

Evelyn Hilborn left April 21 for two weeks with Ellen Tuck, in Toronto, Can. While there she visited her cousin, Evelyn (she was named for), plus various friends and her brother and wife, Norma and Brenda, in Hamilton, Ontario. For Evelyn's birthday, they went out for dinner near Buffalo, N.Y. She visited Amish Country for maple syrup and cheese, had an Amish dinner with Ellen in Elmira, Ont., and visited friends, Doug and Lillie Robb in Peterborough, Ont. It was hot (in the 80's) in Toronto. Evelyn had to mow her friend's lawn twice. She came back Sunday and was in the bad storm we had until she got home. Terrific winds along the St. Lawrence, so she stayed Sunday night at Malone, N.Y., rather than coming straight through.

Amy Hannon went on a field trip Wednesday to Augusta with her fifth grade.

Sunday, May 5, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Hannon and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gorham and girls and Mike Lynch went to Gorham, N.H. to eat.

Manuel and Sheri Angevine Cordova left May 3 for Hartford, Conn., to see her friend, Mary McKay and came back May 5.

Sue and Kristy Angevine and Manuel and Sheri Cordova went to Norway shopping May 8.

Visitors of Thelma Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shimamura were John and Lorraine Mills, Judy Webster and Barbara Gallant.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Immonen of West Paris called on me Tuesday afternoon.

May 9, Alberta Angevine went to the mother-daughter banquet for Eleanor Gordon Guild at Country Way restaurant, guest of Cindy Blake.

Ernest and Alberta Angevine made a trip to Oxford May 7.

Alden MacDougall went to Augusta Friday to pick up Lea Ann MacDougall from her work. She went back Sunday.

Bob and Linda Howe had a double birthday dinner at their home May 4. Bob's mother, Joan Howe, and Linda's mother, Sylvia Fontaine, were both born May 4. Joan's mother, Ethel Ward, brought cream puffs and Linda made strawberry ice cream. Others attending were the two Howe boys, Bud and Tom and Susan Howe.

Friday I was pleased to have Sue and Kristy Angevine stop in.

Saturday Ira Gibson and Joy Bryant came down from Canton to help Frank with the garden.

Pat Saunders had a household party Saturday morning. Present were Madeline Hunt, Roberta Hunt, Susan Howe, Barbara MacDougall and myself, plus the demonstrator.

Saturday evening, Ernest and Alberta Angevine brought us some dandelion greens.

Dr. Leonard and Becky Shaw went to Portland, Saturday. Dr. Shaw went to meetings and Becky went shopping at the mall. Jolene Shimamura stayed with the twins.

Can We Say

Can we say in parting with the day that's slipping fast,

That you helped a single person of the many you have passed?

Is a single life rejoicing over what you did or said?

Does someone whose hopes were fading, now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day or lose it, was it well or poorly spent?

Did you leave a trend of kindness, or a sea of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber, do you think that God would say,

You have made the world much better for the life you've lived today?

WINNERS OF THE BETHEL ROTARY CLUB'S first Community Service Award are Janice and Ray Harrington, who have devoted themselves to promoting Scouting in the Bethel area. Rotary Club President Jim Monahan presented the Harringtons with the award at last week's club luncheon at the Sudbury Inn.

Telstar students get first-hand look at various vocations

Last month, Telstar juniors and seniors participated in Career Week, during which they went out into the real world and tried their hands at various jobs. These were some of their reactions.

Junior Suzi Roy, of Locke Mills, helped out in Mrs. Gould's first-grade class at the Ethel Bisbee School. Suzi said she had a wonderful time and is very interested in teaching as a career. When asked why she wanted to teach small children, she replied, "They make you feel good about what you're doing."

Bernie Haines, a senior, worked at Carter's Farm, on the Middle Intervale Road, in Bethel. Bernie milked cows, cleaned the barn and also helped build a new milking parlor. His comment was, "The hours of a dairy farmer made me realize how long and hard a day can be."

A junior, Crystal Haskell, helped Dr. Gauger, a veterinarian, at Norway Veterinary Hospital. She observed a couple of operations and assisted in taking care of the animals. Crystal learned a lot from the experience and hopes to become a veterinary technician because she loves animals and loves helping them.

Senior Tammy Poland, of Bethel, spent Career Week at the West Bethel Children's Center. She read to the children in the library and assisted in housekeeping and at recess time. Tammy enjoyed it and loved working with the children.

Junior Jim Fiske worked at the James River Paper Company in Berlin, N.H., mostly in the engineering departments. He said he had a great time and is positive that engineering is going to be his career. He said, "I came away with a clear image of engineering. I find it enjoyable because I get to use my mind and my hands."

Ken Whitney, a senior, job-shadowed elementary Physical Education teacher Rayne Cole during Career Week. At both Woodstock Elementary and Crescent Park School, he assisted children in grades K-6 in basketball, bowling and gymnastic skills. Ken also helped in other activities, such as the parachute and kickball.

Hunee Bollo spent Career Week at Travel-Wize Tour Associates in South Paris. The junior worked at different types of jobs throughout the week. She said she liked the variety and found the food service worker was accepted. The appointment of Jeannine Wing as a food service worker was approved.

Also receiving board approval were the following substitute personnel: Pamela Conkright, bus driver, custodian, hot lunch; Virgil Conkright, bus driver, custodian; Phyllis Blake, study hall aide; Roy S. Silver, teacher.

The directors approved an unpaid leave of absence requested by Mrs. Floris Robin, a teacher at Crescent Park School, for the remainder of the current school year.

An additional $50 each in stipend payment for the upcoming school year was approved for the lead teachers at Crescent Park School and Ethel Bisbee School. (This increment over the current year was inadvertently omitted from stipends authorized for the positions at a recent session of the board.)

The board granted approval for an additional stipend amount of $850 to be paid to Mrs. Jolene Shimamura for the current year as supervising special education teacher at Ethel Bisbee School. (This is in addition to the $850 initially approved on Nov. 12, 1984.)

The directors ratified a 1985-1987 Agreement between the SAD #44 Board of Directors and Local #2010 of Council #74 AFSCME AFL-CIO. This agreement covers those employed in SAD 44 as bus drivers, custodians, and food service personnel. The agreement, which has been ratified by both parties, union and the board of directors, is effective from July 1, 1985, to Aug. 31, 1987.

An updated statement of SAD 44 Educational Philosophy and Goals was favored by a majority of the board members present.

Following a hearing held in executive session, it was the decision of the directors to let stand a 10-day suspension of a Telstar ninth grader for smoking (second offense.)

A second executive session was necessary for discussion of matters pertaining to the potential future district acquisition of real estate.

Newry board member Robin Fraser was not present on Monday evening.

The next meeting of the SAD 44 Board of Directors is scheduled for 7:30 on Monday evening, May 27, at the Anderson Elementary School.

people at Travel-Wize pleasant to work with.

Senior Chad Bean worked at the State Police barracks in Scarborough. He did several jobs, such as working in the radio room, in the garage and out in the patrol cars. During the week, Chad saw how the K-9 unit worked. While he was out with the K-9 unit, he saw the police dog stop a man from running away. Chad thinks police work would be a very interesting career.

Eric Wight, a junior, explored the furniture construction field at Shearwater Design, in New Gloucester. It was enjoyable for him and he will be employed there this summer. He thinks, however, that woodworking is going to be his hobby rather than his career.

Linda James worked in the Physical Education area at Telstar, where she participated in high school classes and taught middle school classes. She enjoyed it very much and the experience helped her with her career decision.

Junior Judy Aron, of Upton, worked with Dr. Judy Shedd in Bethel during the week. She helped by working as a secretary and an aide in the doctor's office. She enjoyed the experience but does not want to pursue it as a career.

Senior Mary Taylor worked at the Bethel Day Care Center. She read stories, helped at lunch time and went for walks with the kids. She enjoyed it and it proved to be a very exciting week.

We would like to thank the juniors and seniors who helped us with this article and the businesses and people that supported Career Week.

Newry Selectmen

The Newry Board of Selectmen met with June Swan, Clerk-Treasurer, and Mary Tripp, Tax Collector, at the Town Office on Thursday morning, May 9, and set hours when the Town Office would be open.

As of May 14 the selectmen are to be in session at the Town Office from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Tuesday mornings. The clerk-treasurer and tax collector will hold office hours Tuesdays from 12 noon to 8 p.m., and Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. All business with the clerk-treasurer and tax collector will be transacted at the Town Office during these hours, not at their homes as in the past. The phone number of the Town Office is 824-3123.

The selectmen discussed the need for a new highway truck in the near future, also discussing the possibility of hiring instead of owning a town truck. The selectmen would appreciate hearing from anyone owning a truck suitable for plowing and caring for town roads, who would be willing to act as road commissioner, or in hiring out their equipment to the town to be used by the road commissioner, also the feelings of the voters—RE hiring vs. owning. There is nothing definite about this, it is just a possibility the selectmen are considering. The selectmen feel that since the town has so little road to maintain it might be more economical for the town to hire as opposed to owning.

The selectmen met with Roland Moreau from the State Bureau of Taxation on Wednesday. He was gathering information to be used in figuring the town's state valuation.

Mary Tripp, Tax Collector, placed tax liens on eight parcels of property on which the 1984 taxes had not been paid.

BETHEL SENIOR CITIZENS CELEBRATE 23 YEARS

Formal establishment of the National Council of Senior Citizens took place in Detroit in July 1961, with 41 Medicare supporters in attendance, and Congressman Alime J. Forand of Rhode Island was selected as president. The NCSC was formed to assist elderly citizens on this country achieve equity and claim for their fair share of the general welfare of all, to which they have devoted their lives. And so it was that on May 15, 1962, the Bethel Senior Citizens was organized by a group of caring people, and had its beginnings in the United Methodist Church and also meeting at the West Parish Congregational Church. The Bethel Club was presented its charter of affiliation in May 1977.

On Wednesday, May 8, the club met at the Sunday River Inn to celebrate 23 years of togetherness and friendship, and to honor those charter members. Many have long since gone, but those three who attended were presented with beautiful orchid corsages. There were 82 members present to see Gladys Cross, Sarah Stevens, and Emily Saunders looking lovely with the orchids.

During the business meeting, following a delicious chicken pie dinner provided by the hosts Peggy and Steve Wight and assistants, Muriel Faudi, past president of eight years, read a tribute to the charter members present and at large.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted, and also a report from the Sunshine Committee. Polly Shatney announced plans for fundraising—selling tickets on an afghan made and donated by Mildred Thomas also selling small crafts on Mollycoddle Day in July.

The president, Irene Pike, who conducted the meeting, asked those who attended the April meeting for their donations towards Chris Chapman's gift; also for cookies and bars needed at the Telstar graduation reception on June 14; a letter from U.S. Senator

Wednesday. These liens totalled $3,422.85. One lien for $226.86 was resident and the balance non-resident.

The selectmen met with David Lee of Bethel Cablevision at the Town Office Friday. Mr. Lee has discussed Cable TV with some homeowners in Newry and has been at the Sunday River Ski Resort. He now feels that there are enough housing units (an average of 25 per mile), to warrant installation through the entire town. There will be a public hearing at the Town Office Tuesday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Lee will be present to answer questions. If the response at the hearing is favorable, the selectmen will then adopt an ordinance (the same as adopted by Bethel), and a franchise will be signed with Bethel Cablevision. It is understood that work will be started in July and sometime later in Newry, Greenwood and Woodstock.

Demolition debris, bricks, gypsum board, or other non-combustible materials should be landfilled. Other large or bulky items such as mattresses, box springs, sofas, chairs, stumps or brush are also unsuitable for the transfer station.

Mr. Redman also announced summer hours for the transfer station, as follows: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1-8 p.m.; Saturdays, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.; Sundays, noon-8 p.m. The summer hours, which will be in effect from July 1 until Labor Day, will afford Greenwood and Woodstock residents six additional hours a week to dispose of refuse. After Labor Day, the hours will revert to the present hours.

The Recreation Committee will tackle the issue of new speed limit signs around the recreational field on Howe Hill at its next monthly meeting.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE

of the defendants' property, the suit contends. It further claims that the town seeks to deprive the defendants of "the peaceful use and enjoyment of a portion of their valuable waterfront property."

In contention is the width of the road, with the town claiming it to be a two-rod road (33 feet) and the defendants claiming it to be a one-rod road (16½ feet). The town claims that the road was widened to two rods beginning in 1867. But the defendants respond that, according to the laws of the time, the widening had to be accomplished within six years and it was not, therefore the road legally remained a one-rod road.

The road has been surveyed three times in recent years—twice by Dana Douglass, of Bethel, and once by Earl Houghton, of Bridgton, and all the surveys according to the town's position, tended to support the town's position, according to the selectmen.

Asked to comment on the land owners' countersuit, the selectmen would say only that the entire matter is now in the lawyers' hands.

They noted, however, that the landowners' fences lining it, is a problem to plow in the winter. Additionally, firefighting capability is restricted because access to the water is being impeded. The public wharf is also a source of recreation for the townspeople, and the selectmen are concerned about its status.

The selectmen are anxious to get reaction from Woodstock citizens regarding the situation.

Fundraising committee formed for health center

Nearly 20 people attended the initial meeting of the fundraising committee for the renovation of the Bethel Area Health Center. The meeting was held recently at the Methodist Church in Bethel.

Carolyn Holden, chairwoman of the fundraising committee, introduced Shirley Powell, executive director of the health center, who spoke on the need for expansion. Ms. Powell stated that the expansion program will more than double the present space, thus permitting more service to more people.

Careful planning over several years has preceded this major expansion step. The center's finance and facilities committees have been working hard for the last several years studying the future options available to the center. That study resulted in a recommendation to purchase and renovate the former A&P building on Railroad Street.

There was enthusiastic support shown by those attending the initial fundraising meeting.

Sub-committees are being formed for the project. Chairmen of subcommittees will be named within a week or two and major activities will be initiated by summer.

CELEBRATE!

Join us in welcoming the warm weather back to Bethel. The change in seasons means a change in our operations to meet the needs of our guests.

GOLF

The course is open and filling out beautifully. The greenskeeper is manicuring our new sand traps and the greens are putting smoothly. Pete and Brenda Matthews have put together a special series of lessons for beginners and medium handicappers (men, women and children) to get your golf game off to a good start. A choice of morning and afternoon sessions are available beginning May 21 and ending May 31. Call the Pro Shop now for details.

DINING

The lunch time barbeque starts this weekend on the Mill Brook Terrace with a great selection of mid-day fare at very reasonable prices. The barbeque will be served from noon 'til 3:00 weekends only until June 1 when daily service will begin.

Breakfast and dinner is now served daily in our upstairs dining rooms and, when weather permits, on our dining veranda facing on the golf course. Chef Norton Brooks offers a wide selection of beef and seafood entrees prepared to his exacting standards. Dinner reservations are recommended.

MILL BROOK TAVERN

The tavern will be open weekends at noon and weekdays at 5 p.m. until June 1 when service will begin at noon every day. The Terrace is open now and is a perfect spot to put the cares of the day behind you. A special selection of cooling summer libations is offered and hearty sandwiches are always available. Evening entertainment begins with the return of the irrepressible Jim Stoner the last weekend in May.

COUNTRY CLUB MEMBERSHIPS

Memberships are still available and include golf, the swimming pool, tennis and the Lake House (for swimming and sailing) privileges. Special plans are available for individuals, families, juniors and non-residents.

West Paris

By VIVA WHITMAN

I'm trying to write a little, even though I'm in Lewiston at the moment. Came down not knowing just when my daughter might be going into the hospital, but she hasn't gone yet, so am still here helping in any way I can and doing baby sitting so she can get things done.

Hope no one got blown away yesterday, the way the wind blew. Called Russell and he said it blew just as hard there on High Street as it did here in Lewiston. He hasn't been feeling too good with his having a bad cold.

Russell said the special meeting of May 4 at Bear River Grange went as expected. Not many people turned out, but hope to keep the Grange going somehow even though there are several of us who are planning to take out demits in the late fall. We all hope there are a number of folks who will be interested in joining so the Grange will prosper.

Russell said that Peggy's daughter Myrna and husband Whitey were up and had lunch with him and Peggy May 7 and they enjoyed the call. Had to ask how my African violets are doing and he said they seemed to be doing pretty good.

I wonder where the nice spring weather went? It has seemed so cold lately that I had to go back to wearing more warm clothing again.

Russell said he hadn't done any more about a garden as he was trying to get rid of that cold and hadn't succeeded as yet. It is hard to work when one feels so lousy.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all who took part in the program at Franklin Grange for me. That is where the three point meeting took place on May 6 and I appreciate all the help given as I wasn't there. Thanks to one and all.

I expect to be a new grandma this next Monday and will be glad to have the trial for my daughter over. Just hope it will be a healthy baby and that it is the most important of all.

How often have you been approached with a question of this kind? "Excuse me, do you have a minute to spare?" And how often has your response been, "Not now, I am too busy—" or, "I don't have the time now maybe tomorrow—" Or perhaps even more bluntly, "Don't bother me now, I have a program to watch—" The excuses go on and on and on—

How quickly we all can find the "time" to criticize our fellow-beings who happen to share the same working place that we do, or the same community. A fellow who breathes the same air, and tries to survive in this life, regardless of circumstances—often in quite the same way that we do—

A quote on a sun-dial reads—"Time was first created in a garden."

On the other hand, for example, if someone approached you and asked, "Say, would you have the time to invest in an assured monetary project, with a guaranteed 22 percent interest on your investment—a proven fool-proof plan?"—would you turn to him and say, "Sorry, I'd like too but I don't have the 'time'."

Perhaps instead of being so prone to criticize someone else's life style, it would be wiser to "invest" some time in yourself for 30 minutes a week—look yourself squarely in the eye and say, "Wait a minute—hold on there—I myself am entirely capable of functioning in that manner as I am not infallible—I myself am human—I have done this and so—does that make me a better judge of another?"

Take the "time" to look beyond petty gossip, look beyond the "walls" and begin at least make a start to "clean up your own garden."

As the old adage goes—"Do not criticize another Indian until you have walked the same mile in his (or her) moccasins."

After this set of eye-openers are completed—take the "time" to thank the Maker for your own path in life and count your blessings! (But for the Grace of God there go I.)

How much is it going to "cost you?" How much can you "invest."

The trouble with all of us and myself included (I will be the first to admit—that we fail to see beyond the walls that we have built for ourselves, and the "weeds" that we have allowed to flourish in our own lives.

What a pity to lose the "gardens" because of the walls and the weeds.

A better world can be attained for us all—if we take the "time" to plant the garden, comprised of compassion for one another and his plight.

Your investment of this "time" will quickly pay you more than the 22 percent—it can return 1,000 fold.

Yes "time" began in a garden—the Good Book tells it all—

How about planting some new seeds—dig up the weeds—tear down the walls—the Ethiopians aren't the only starving ones—. The world needs your little rose garden! God bless all and peace!

Anita Ferrand and Anna Belanger, have been suffering from a "virus" that seems to be "going around" this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Palmer of New Bedford, Mass., have been visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. George MacArthur, on the North Road recently. Mrs. MacArthur recently spent some time visiting nephews in the Portsmouth and Kittery areas.

"Junior" Bennett of Bethel was in town recently, readying people's gardens for planting.

To see snow falling on the morning of the 8th, was an unwelcome sight for all to say the least. The "squall" lasted for one hour, about one inch of the frozen crystals showed on the bird feeder—but melted away with a clearing sky and sunshine around 9 a.m., followed by a few nights of

Read-Aloud handbook now at Bethel Library

"... Richer than I you can never be —I had a mother who read to me,"
"The Reading Mother"
by Strickland Gillian

This is how The Read-Aloud Handbook, by Jim Trelease, begins. Filled with interesting examples from Trelease's own experience, The Read-Aloud Handbook is a guide to teaching your child to want to read.

The first part discusses the need to read aloud to children (even infants), special techniques to make reading aloud an enjoyable experience for both parent and child, and how to cope with television, which Trelease calls "the largest single stumbling block to reading enjoyment and achievement in this country today."

The second half of the book lists 900 read-alouds for toddlers through junior high students. Trelease gives concise summaries of each book to aid parents in choosing the right books for their children.

The Bethel Library has The Read-Aloud Handbook. If your child doesn't like to read, come and take a look at this important resource for parents. As Trelease promises in his introduction, "Once you begin the daily experience of reading aloud to children, it will become one of the best parts of your day and the children's day, minute and hours that will be treasured for years to come."

Citizen Press buys more typesetting equipment

Citizen Press this week purchased additional typesetting equipment for its operation. The new equipment, valued at $9,600, was purchased from a college in Virginia that was closing out its publications department.

With the new equipment, the Citizen Press staff will be able to take on more typesetting jobs, according to Bernard Wideman, corporation president. In addition to doing typesetting for the weekly Bethel Citizen and for job work—such as letterheads, posters and town and school district reports—Citizen Press has begun to do custom typesetting for businesses and individuals who need camera-ready ads, logos, or manuscripts.

The new equipment includes a video display terminal and keyboard, plus a controller and two disk drives and is compatible with the typesetting equipment purchased earlier this year. The new equipment was purchased with the aid of a loan from The Bethel Savings Bank.

Safety Tip of the Week: The nice weather encourages all of us to spend more time outside. Please be sure to not overdo. The yard work may be important, especially before black fly season, but not important enough to put you in the hospital.

If not in shape, be sure to gradually get your heart in condition first. Also know if your back would be bothered by certain activities and use your knees to lift or get someone else to help with the difficult tasks.

Notes from the Woodstock Historical Society

How often do we stop to take stock of where we are as a nation? Perhaps not often enough. The following poem offers a picture of America that is perhaps a little different from the one patriotic flag-wavers often supply. Consider it carefully:

AMERICA

America has been
A new attempt,
A trial by fire
Through debate and war
And will to win
To see if we could
All share in Having something
Worth all our great ideas.
And often as not
We have failed miserably.
But if what we would,
We could not,
We have still
Muddled on amiably,
Convinced beyond all knowing
That someday, someday,
The dawn will come.

Anon.

TAP Community Cookbook

The TAP Cookbook Committee, consisting of Karen Paul, Vicki Rackliffe, Dee Patterson, Vicky Myers, and Marguerite Graham, has been meeting weekly to put together the "TAP Community Cookbook, Compiled By Friends of EBS and CPS." More than 250 recipes have been collected, edited and organized into the following categories: 1) appetizers, pickles and relishes; 2) soups, salads and vegetables; 3) main dishes; 4) breads, rolls and pastries; 5) cakes, cookies and desserts; 6) snacks, candy and beverages; and 7) "From a Child's Point of View."

Recipes have been submitted by the school superintendent and principal as well as school board members, teachers, staff, and students of EBS and CPS. Other interested friends include parents, grandparents, retired teachers and area businesses. TAP has been pleased to receive so many "sought-after" recipes—those often requested and much enjoyed old family recipes.

Special touches in the book include a picture page with sketches of the two schools by artist Sue Wright of Newry, as well as category divider pages designed by fifth graders from Mrs. Linda Gilbert's and Miss Mary Newcomb's classes.

"From a Child's Point of View" contains first graders' ideas about cooking, gathered by interviewing teachers Mrs. Caroline Gould, Mrs. Kathy McCluskey and Mrs. Sheila Otero-Otero. The committee doesn't advise that anyone actually try these dishes, it is hoped that you agree that they add spice to the cookbook!

The Cookbook Committee is both excited and gratified by the tremendous enthusiasm shown by the community in submitting recipes, pre-ordering books and purchasing advertising space. The committee has currently collected over $800 in advertisements, which will appear at the end of the book, helping to serve as a community resource section.

Over 100 cookbooks have already been pre-ordered, with some individuals reserving as many as six to 12 copies. If you would like to reserve a copy or copies, please contact any committee member or mail your request to Dee Patterson, P.O. Box 366, Bethel, Maine 04217. The TAP Community Cookbook will be printed this summer, complete with washable front and back covers, and will be available for purchase by September. The cost is $4.75 per copy. Profits from the sales will be used for playground equipment, school field trips, a school camera, and in other areas designated by the Teachers and Parents group. Thank you for your support.
